More about Snarf's

When Jimmy Seidel realized he couldn't find the perfect sandwich with the quality he was looking for, he decided to open the first Snarf's Sandwiches in Boulder in 1996. Now, more than two decades later, the family-owned business has grown to over 20 restaurants in Colorado, Chicago, St. Louis and Austin.

Snarf's award-winning sandwiches are made-to-order using only the finest ingredients including premium meats and cheeses, crisp veggies, their own blend of giardiniera peppers and homemade, oven-toasted bread available in white, wheat or gluten free. They also offer fresh salads with homemade dressings, phenomenal soups, kid-sized subs, vegetarian options, desserts and a full catering menu.
